They are from various places. Mr. Rikard Kaarbo from Harstad, Norway. Mr. Kaarbo is a shipbuilder and he is here with his daughter who lives in New York City. They are the guests of Mr. & Mrs. Jack Cochran of Fremont. We are glad to have you here. We welcome you to the Legislature. Now, Mr. Clerk, is there anything further on your desk? We are then ready for General File and we have a number of bills bracketed for General File this morning. We will start with LB 365. Senator Chambers, then Senator Bar. Yes, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Members of the Legislature, on your desk you will find a lot of paper but one package I hope you pay attention to. At the top is LB 549 and it contains a breakdown of the various amendments offered to that package of bills introduced by the Secretary of State through the Government Committee. So when these bills do come up for consideration, if you have specific questions on these bills, you could first look through this package of amendments which will give the number of each bill and a breakdown of the amendments and what they do and that might prevent the taking of time on the floor during discussion.

SPEAKER: Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, what I stood up for was that I would have liked to...or I would like to ask for unanimous consent to have 585 brought up to the top of General File order now, if we could and this is the bill that is on the slain trooper from our west. I would like to take care of this action and get this bill on its way and expedite it across the board for the benefits of his family.

SPEAKER: What's the number of the bill, Senator.

SENATOR BARNETT: 585.

SPEAKER: 585.

SENATOR BARNETT: Right.

SPEAKER: What does it basically do. Just very briefly.

SENATOR BARNETT: Basically, it contributes money to the family from the Legislature. It sets up trust funds for the two surviving sons.

SPEAKER: This is on General File.

SENATOR BARNETT: Yes, it is sir.

SPEAKER: It's not bracketed for today, or is it?

SENATOR BARNETT: No, it is not.

SPEAKER: Well, are you asking unanimous consent to take that up right now?

SENATOR BARNETT: I would like to do that.

SPEAKER: Any objection to that? So ordered. LB 585. The clerk will read. Senator, while we are finding the bill up here, why don't you start explaining it. Just a minute. We have it.

CLERK: Read title. LB 585. There are no committee amendments or other amendments.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. Chairman, I move for the adoption of this bill.
